Form W-4 (2009)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2009 expires February 16, 2010. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. You cannot claim exemption from withholding if (a) your income exceeds $950 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends) and (b) another person can claim you as a dependent on their tax return.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earner/multiple job situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding, for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 919 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 919 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see the Instructions for Form 8233 before completing this Form W-4.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 919 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2009. See Pub. 919, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Personal Allowances Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

A Enter "1" for yourself if no one else can claim you as a dependent. . . . . A _____

B Enter "1" if: } • You are single and have only one job; or • You are married, have only one job, and your spouse does not work; or • Your wages from a second job or your spouse's wages (or the total of both) are $1,500 or less. . . . . B _____

C Enter "1" for your spouse. But, you may choose to enter "-0-" if you are married and have either a working spouse or more than one job. (Entering "-0-" may help you avoid having too little tax withheld.) . . . . . C _____

D Enter number of dependents (other than your spouse or yourself) you will claim on your tax return . . . . . D _____

E Enter "1" if you will file as head of household on your tax return (see conditions under Head of household above) . . . . . E _____

F Enter "1" if you have at least $1,800 of child or dependent care expenses for which you plan to claim a credit . . . . . F _____

(Note. Do not include child support payments. See Pub. 503, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, for details.)

G Child Tax Credit (including additional child tax credit). See Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit, for more information.

- If your total income will be less than $61,000 ($90,000 if married), enter "2" for each eligible child; then less "1" if you have three or more eligible children.
- If your total income will be between $61,000 and $84,000 ($90,000 and $119,000 if married), enter "1" for each eligible child plus "1" additional if you have six or more eligible children.

H Add lines A through G and enter total here. (Note. This may be different from the number of exemptions you claim on your tax return.) ► H _____

For accuracy, complete all worksheets that apply. } • If you plan to itemize or claim adjustments to income and want to reduce your withholding, see the Deductions and Adjustments Worksheet on page 2.

- If you have more than one job or are married and you and your spouse both work and the combined earnings from all jobs exceed $40,000 ($25,000 if married), see the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 2 to avoid having too little tax withheld.
- If neither of the above situations applies, stop here and enter the number from line H on line 5 of Form W-4 below.

Instructions

Who should file this form

This certificate, Form IT-2104, is completed by an employee and given to the employer to instruct the employer how much New York State (and New York City and Yonkers) tax to withhold from the employee's pay. The more allowances claimed, the lower the amount of tax withheld.

If you do not file Form IT-2104, your employer may use the same number of allowances you claimed on federal Form W-4. Due to differences in tax law, this may result in the wrong amount of tax withheld for New York State, New York City, and Yonkers. Complete Form IT-2104 each year and file it with your employer if the number of allowances you may claim is different from federal Form W-4 or has changed. Common reasons for completing a new Form IT-2104 each year include the following:

- You started a new job.
- You are no longer a dependent.
- Your individual circumstances may have changed (for example, you were married or have an additional child).
- You itemize your deductions on your personal income tax return.
- You claim allowances for New York State credits.
- You owed tax or received a large refund when you filed your personal income tax return for the past year.

- Your wages have increased and you expect to earn $100,000 or more during the tax year.
- The total income of you and your spouse has increased to $100,000 or more for the tax year.
- You have significantly more or less income from other sources or from another job.
- You no longer qualify for exemption from withholding.
- You have been advised by the Internal Revenue Service that you are entitled to fewer allowances than claimed on your original federal Form W-4, and the disallowed allowances were claimed on your original Form IT-2104.

Exemption from withholding

You cannot use Form IT-2104 to claim exemption from withholding. To claim exemption from income tax withholding, you must file Form IT-2104-E, Certificate of Exemption from Withholding, with your employer. You must file a new certificate each year that you qualify for exemption. This exemption from withholding is allowable only if you had no New York income tax liability in the prior year, you expect none in the current year, and you are over 65 years of age, under 18, or a full-time student under 25. If you are a dependent who is under 18 or a full-time student, you may owe tax if your income is more than $3,000.

Certificate of Exemption from Withholding

New York State • New York City • Yonkers

IT-2104-E

This certificate will expire on April 30, 2010.

To claim exemption from withholding for New York State personal income tax (and New York City and Yonkers personal income tax, if applicable), you must meet all of the following conditions:

- you must be under age 18, or over age 65, or a full-time student under age 25; and
- you did not have a New York income tax liability for 2008; and
- you do not expect to have a New York income tax liability for 2009.

If you do not meet all of the above conditions, stop; you cannot claim exemption from withholding.

I certify that the information on this form is correct and that, for the year 2009, I expect to qualify for exemption from withholding of New York State income tax under section 671(a)(3) of the Tax Law. ## Instructions

Employee

Who qualifies — You may claim exemption from withholding if: (1) you are under age 18, over age 65, or a full-time student under age 25, and (2) you had no New York income tax liability for 2008, and (3) expect none for the year 2009. (For this purpose, you have a tax liability if your return shows tax before the allowance of any credit for income tax withheld.)

If you meet these conditions, file this certificate, Form IT-2104-E, with your employer. Otherwise, your employer must withhold New York State income tax (and New York City and Yonkers personal income tax, if applicable) from your wages. Do not send this certificate to the Tax Department.

Generally, as a resident, you are required to file a New York State income tax return if you are required to file a federal income tax return, or if your federal adjusted gross income plus your New York additions is more than $4,000, regardless of your filing status. However, if you are single and can be claimed as a dependent on another person's federal return, you must file a New York State return if your federal adjusted gross income plus your New York additions is more than $3,000.

If you are a nonresident and have income from New York sources, you must file a New York return if the sum of your federal adjusted gross income and New York additions to income is more than your New York standard deduction.

A penalty of $500 may be imposed for furnishing false information that decreases your withholding amount.

When to claim exemption from withholding — File this certificate with your employer if you meet all the conditions listed above. You must file a new certificate each year if you wish to continue to claim the exemption.

Liability for estimated tax — If, as a result of this exemption certificate, your employer does not withhold income tax from your wages and you later fail to qualify for exemption from tax, you may be required to pay estimated tax and be subject to penalty if it is not paid. For further information, see Form IT-2105, Estimated Income Tax Payment Voucher for Individuals.

Multiple employers — If you have more than one employer, you may claim exemption from withholding with each employer as long as your total expected income will not cause you to incur a New York income tax liability for the year 2009 and you had no liability for 2008.

Revocation by employee — You must revoke this exemption certificate (1) within 10 days from the day you expect to incur a New York income tax liability for the year 2009, or (2) on or before December 1, 2009, if you expect to incur a tax liability for 2010.

If you are required to revoke this certificate, if you no longer meet the age requirements for claiming exemption, or if you want income tax withheld from your pay (because, for example, you expect your income to exceed $3,000), you must file Form IT-2104, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, with your employer. Follow the instructions on Form IT-2104 to determine the correct number of allowances to claim for withholding tax purposes.

Filing status — Mark an X in one box on Form IT-2104-E that shows your present filing status for federal purposes.

Need help? — If you need help completing this form, call toll free 1 800 225-5829 (for employees) or 1 877 698-2910 (for employers). From areas outside the U.S. and outside Canada, call (518) 485-6800.
