CITIZEN COMPLAINT FORM

The Albany Citizens' Review Board (CPRB) encourages any persons who believe that they have a legitimately founded complaint of police misconduct to lodge such complaint with the Albany Police Department (APD) or with the CPRB. Such alleged misconduct includes but is not limited to complaints of excessive use of force or violation of civil rights (the definition of which shall include complaints pertaining to sexual orientation).

The goals of the CPRB are to improve communication between the Police Department and the community, to increase accountability and credibility with the public, and to create a complaint review process that is free from bias and informed of actual police practices. Because of the important public trust exercised by all members of the Albany Police Department and the importance of maintaining that trust and the integrity of the Department, it is the responsibility of the Department to investigate promptly and thoroughly every complaint and accusation made against a police officer in order to protect that officer, the Department and the residents of the City of Albany. The CPRB will review every complaint investigation from beginning to end.

The Board recognizes that completing the Citizen Complaint Form and submitting or filing such complaint can be intimidating and stressful. The Board, therefore, has arranged with supportive civic groups and organizations to provide assistance in filling out the Complaint Form and in following up the complaint process. The Board believes that these good faith offers of assistance to individuals who wish to lodge a complaint will serve not only the individual, but also the community at large and the Albany Police Department.

Attached is a list of agencies that have agreed to be of assistance to those filing complaints in completing the Complaint Form and, if requested, will provide assistance in being present during the course of the investigation of the complaint.

Please note: The Complaint Form must be signed by the complainant herself/himself.

The completed Form may be filed at any station of the Albany Police Department or submitted to the Albany Citizens' Police Review Board at the Government Law Center, Albany Law School, 80 New Scotland Ave. Albany, NY 12208-3494, in person, by mail, or via fax at 518.445.2303.
